

Employers for Learning PLEDGE

Realizing that greater family and community involvement in education is a critical link to children's success,

Company name

PLEDGES TO

- explore policies and practices to encourage and enable employee involvement in schools and learning;
- develop initiatives that consistently assist employees in their efforts to make sure their children attend school regularly, complete homework and special assignments, and maintain parent-school communication;
- seek opportunities to share business expertise to benefit schools.

President/CEO: _____

My company's Education Liaison will be

Name and title

Phone

E-mail

Date