Job Title: Assistive Technology Service Provider (Teacher, Special Programs)
Position Code: 7E05 / GE05
Job Classification: Exempt

Supervisor: Coordinator of Assistive Technology
Pay Grade: 35/37
Contract Length: 220 Days

Job Summary
Assistive Technology Service Provider (ATSP) is responsible for providing direct service to students, teachers and parents regarding the acquisition, implementation and training for technology assigned on an individual or classroom basis.

Essential Duties
1. Provides direct service to referred students within their classrooms.
2. Collaborates with instructional staff for instructional planning, co-teaches, and models strategies with regard to effectively integrating technology into teaching and learning.
3. Collaborates with instructional supervisors on curriculum development with regard to technology integration.
4. Identifies technology integration competencies among instructional staff, in collaboration with school administrators, and delivers appropriate coaching, training, and resources to support the professional growth of individuals.
5. Provide training to direct service providers and parents of referred students.
6. Attend IEP/504 meetings.
7. Make home visits to set up technology in the home if documented by the IEP/504 plan
8. Maintain documentation of services provided.
9. Maintain documentation of equipment signed out to staff and students
10. Create activities using Assistive Technology to support SOL’s, ASOL’s and IEP objectives.
11. Researches new technology integration techniques and resources for dissemination to instructional staff.
12. Models nondiscriminatory practices in all activities.

Other Duties
1. Initiates and maintains effective liaisons with other school divisions and professional societies to maintain a current knowledge in assistive technology.
2. Maintains a current knowledge of technology integration strategies and effective instructional and coaching pedagogy.
3. Advises instructional staff on the use of various technology tools to aid content comprehension, differentiation, and remediation.
4. Supports the collaboration and communication among school and district staff through the management of electronic interaction venues, e.g. websites and video-conferencing.
5. Coordinates with school and technical support staff for timely reporting of equipment needing repair or other support issues, as well as for ensuring the smooth and successful deployment of new technologies.

Job Specifications
To perform this job successfully, an individual must be able to perform each essential duty satisfactorily. The requirements listed below are representative of the knowledge, skill and/or ability required. Reasonable accommodation may be made to enable individuals with disabilities, who are otherwise qualified, to perform the essential functions.

Minimum Qualifications (Knowledge, Skills and/or Abilities Required)
Must possess a Bachelors degree, Virginia teaching license (special education LD endorsement preferred), and have satisfied technology requirements. Must possess at least 3-5 years classroom teaching experience, which includes using assistive technologies in the classroom. Must possess knowledge of accommodations and modifications for students with special needs to gain access to the general curriculum. Must possess the ability to coach and train... teachers in the integration of assistive technologies into the classroom. Must possess effective instructional delivery techniques and excellent communication skills. Must possess an in-depth knowledge of computer instructional applications and curriculum development. Must possess the ability to communicate effectively verbally and in writing. Must possess the ability to establish and maintain effective working relationships with students, staff, parents, and the public.

Working Conditions & Physical Requirements
The physical demands described here are representative of those that must be met by an employee to successfully perform the essential functions of this job. Reasonable accommodation may be made to enable individuals with disabilities to perform essential functions.

Must exhibit manual dexterity to dial a telephone, to enter data into a computer terminal; to see and read a computer screen and printed material with or without vision aids; hear and understand speech at normal classroom levels and on the telephone; speak in audible tones so that others may understand clearly in normal classrooms and on the telephone; physical agility to lift up to 25 pounds.

Work Environment
The work environment characteristics described here are representative of those an employee encounters while performing the essential functions of this job. Reasonable accommodations may be made to enable individuals with disabilities to perform the essential functions. Duties are normally performed in a classroom/computer environment. The noise level in the work environment is usually moderate.

Supervision Exercised: None

Supervision Received: Coordinator of Assistive Technology

This job description in no way states or implies that these are the only duties to be performed by this employee. The Teacher, Assistive Technology Service Provider will be required to follow any other instructions and to perform any other related duties as assigned by the Coordinator of Assistive Technology or appropriate administrator. Newport News Public Schools reserves the right to update, revise or change this job description and related duties at any time.

Approvals:

---

I acknowledge that I have received and read this job description.

---

Employee Name (Print)  Signature  Date

10/09 dlb