After sharing prior knowledge of Abraham Lincoln, students worked together to brainstorm questions that we could research.
Students worked together to collect information from a variety of text resources.
Students took notes from online databases and resources.

They made sure to credit their sources.
Students will now create and share presentations using Google slides.