Yates Elementary
School Library

April
Kindergarten students are learning about insect needs and life cycles. Students are sharing what they already know, asking questions to guide their learning, and reporting what they have learned.
Second Grade Inquiry

Second grade students wrapped up their Scientific Inquiry unit by sharing their findings with the class. Each student shared one of the questions they researched, what they found in books/online, and what they observed during their investigation.