Because April is Poetry Month, the librarians hosted a tea session with Mrs. Callaway’s class. We provided each student with a straw hat adorned with flowers. The library student helper assisted with making adorning the hats. After reading a selection of poems from the DHS collection, the students created bookmarks. The students also enjoyed cake and Acai Berry tea.
Creating bookmarks

Poetry Time