As our students all have different reading levels and interests, book selections were arranged with an identifying color for students to select appropriate books on their level.