I. PURPOSE:

In accordance with NCLB Title I, Section 1116 (e) of ESEA, Elementary And Secondary Education Act (as amended); Newport News Public Schools (NNPS) is seeking supplemental educational services (SES). The services shall include, but are not limited to, those listed in the Scope of Work as requested by NNPS.

II. BACKGROUND:

The City of Newport News is the fourth largest independent City in the Commonwealth of Virginia. The city is 22 miles long and 4 miles wide encompassing an area of 69.2 square miles. Based on the 2000 census, the population total is 180,150.

NNPS educates approximately 33,200 children in four early childhood centers, 28 elementary schools, 9 middle schools, and 5 high schools. There are also programs available for at-risk students in addition to special education programs. Governance is by an elected school board. Seven members are elected through a ward system for staggered four-year terms with one member elected at large. The School Board establishes policy for the operation of the school division; implementation of Board policy is carried out under the direction of the superintendent. The school division is fiscally dependent, with an annual budget request approved and allocated by City Council. For the seventh consecutive year, SchoolMatch, an independent nationwide service, has selected the school division for the "What Parents Want in Public Education" award. Only 15 percent of school divisions nationally are selected for this award. Child Magazine, a national publication for parents, has named Newport News one of the 10 best cities for families. The Newport News, Norfolk and Virginia Beach region is ranked number 2 in the country in the magazine's April 2001 edition. Newport News is cited for offering an excellent school system with a low student-teacher ratio. The school division has 5900 employees of which 2,400 are teachers. A listing of schools and their locations may be accessed via NNPS' official web site at <http://sbo.nn.k12.va.us/schools>.

In an effort to comply with NCLB Title I, Section 1116 (e) of ESEA, Elementary and Secondary Education Act, NNPS is seeking supplemental educational services to provide eligible students highly skilled tutoring services. NNPS feels that the opportunity for highly skilled tutoring services will complement ongoing school improvement efforts in support of the No Child Left Behind Act.

EE. Preparation and submission of Contract:

Contract must give the full business address of the Provider and be signed by him/her with his/her usual signature.

Contracts by partnerships must furnish the full name of all partners and must be signed in the partnership name by one of the members of the partnership or any authorized representative, followed by the designation of the person signing.

The name of each person signing shall also be typed or printed below the signature. A contract by a person who affixes to the signature the word "President," "Secretary," "Agent" or other designation without disclosing the principal, may be held to be the contract of the individual signing. When requested by NNPS, satisfactory evidence of the authority of the officer signing in behalf of the corporation shall be furnished.

FF. Patents:

The Provider shall obtain all licenses necessary to use any invention, article, appliance, process, or technique of whatever kind and shall pay all royalties and license fees. The Provider shall hold and save NNPS, its officers, agents, and employees, harmless from any loss or liability for or on account of the infringement of any patent rights in connection with any invention, process, technique, article or appliance manufactured or used in the performance of the contract, including its use by NNPS, unless such invention, process, technique, article, or appliance is specifically named in the specifications or drawings as acceptable for use in carrying out the work. If, before using any invention, process, technique, article, or appliance specifically named in the specifications or drawings as acceptable for use in carrying out the work, the Provider has or acquires information that the same is covered by letters of patent making it necessary to secure the permission of the patentee, or other, for the use of the same, he shall promptly advise NNPS. NNPS may direct that some other invention, process, technique, article, or appliance be used. Should the Provider have reason to believe that the invention, process, technique, article, or appliance so specified is an infringement of a patent, and fail to inform NNPS, he shall be responsible for any loss due to the infringement.

GG. Audits:

NNPS shall have the right to audit all books and records (in whatever form they may be kept, whether written, electronic or other) relating or pertaining to this Contract (including any and all documents and other materials, in whatever form they may be kept, which support or underlie those books and records), kept by or under the control of Provider, including, but not limited to those kept by Provider, its employees, agents, assigns, successors and subcontractors. Provider shall maintain such books and records, together with such supporting or underlying documents and materials, for the duration of this Contract and for at least three years following the completion of this Contract, including any and all renewals thereof. The books and records, together with the supporting or underlying documents and materials shall be made available, upon request, to NNPS, through its employees, agents, representatives, contractors or other designees, during normal business hours at Provider's office or place of business in Newport News, Virginia. In the event that no such location is available, then the books and records, together with the supporting or underlying documents and records, shall be made available for audit at a time and location in Newport News, Virginia, which is convenient for NNPS.

This paragraph shall not be construed to limit, revoke, or abridge any other rights, powers, or obligations relating to audit which NNPS may have by state, city, or federal statute, ordinance, regulation, or contract, whether those rights, powers, or obligations are express or implied.
