

Smart Safe Start: New Educational Support Employee Induction

Program Components

The new Educational Support Employee Induction Program provides all new educational support employees with systemic support as they begin developing their professional skills, dispositions and thinking patterns. New support employees are supported at the division level and in their work site locations.

